Who's killing the Friends of the Library?

Sherlock Holmes, Miss Jane Marple and Philip Marlowe determine to pool their detecting dexterities to deal with the dastardly disaster of Death at the Tyler Public Library - the "serial" murders of the officers of the Friends of the Library: Dorothea Dewey, president; Geraldine Genre, secretary and Isaac ISBeN, treasurer.

The three famous detectives must discover who is killing off the Friends of the Library - for the library cannot go on without their support!

Please show your support by joining us for the annual Friends of the Tyler Public Library membership meeting - and murder!

Friday, June 1, 2012 7 p.m. $8 admission fee.

Sunday, May 20, 2 p.m.
Taylor Auditorium
No registration required.

Adult Book Discussion

May 29 - Clara and Mr. Tiffany by Susan Vreeland

“The first thing to be said about a Vreeland novel is that the reader learns a lot from it, but the joy and delight of a Vreeland novel is that the knowledge gleaned from her beautifully articulate pages is not forced on you, not delivered as if from a podium. Welcome here to the world of Clara Driscoll, whom Vreeland has brought to light from the archives of Tiffany Glass Company to establish what is most probably her rightful place in the history of American decorative arts.”

- Booklist

June 26 - The Oriental Wife by Evelyn Toynton

“Rolf and Louisa are among the lucky few to escape Hitler’s Germany, but that’s where their luck ends. This is a tender, moving novel about the cruelty of fate, the difficulty of goodness, and the gulf between the suffering of refugees and the innocence of America.” - Carole Angier, the author of The Double Bond: The Life of Primo Levi (from Amazon.com)
