

You're invited to participate...

Tyler Parks and Recreation

presents the

2012 Azalea Arts and Crafts Fair

Saturday, March 24 and Sunday, March 25, 2012

In Bergfeld Park
(1510 S. College Ave., Tyler, TX)

This event is an outdoor crafts fair for true artists to showcase their talent. This is a juried show and ALL merchandise sold must be hand crafted and designed by the vendor. No exceptions will be made!

There is a $75 fee per booth. Each booth is 10 x 15 feet wide or $150 for a 10 x 30 booth space. There are limited booth spaces for certain categories. ALL interested participants must complete the entire vendor application and return with at least two photos of the arts or crafts, regardless of participation in prior events. No booth space is guaranteed. In the event a category is full your check/money order will be returned to you. No personal checks will be accepted after March 9, 2012 only cashiers check or money orders will be accepted.

All applications are subject to approval. If your application is accepted, a confirmation email or letter will be sent to you listing your booth space location and number.

This year the Azalea 5K Run will take place the morning of March 24 at Bergfeld Park and we will have a lot of visitors (1500+ runners) that morning so our event should start off with a bang...literally.

Please be sure to read each event rule on the application, as they will be strictly enforced. Should you have any questions please contact Debbie Isham, special events/recreation manager at (903) 531-1214 or Heather Bolestridge, recreation specialist, at (903) 597-0781.

A Natural Beauty