CITY OF TYLER

SHORT TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT

The City of Tyler provides a Short Term Disability benefit to all of the regular full time Non-Civil Service employees who works at least 30 hours per week and is on the regular payroll and is in an eligible class for coverage.

Short Term Disability coverage begins on the first day of the calendar month following 90 days the employees becomes eligible for coverage. A new employee in a regular full time position or an employee who is temporary and made permanent falls under this eligibility guideline.

Benefits:

Weekly benefit limit.....60 % of covered weekly earnings
Minimum $100.00 per week Maximum $1,200.00 per week

Benefits are payable for an employee's injury or illness beginning the eighth day of disability for a maximum period of twenty six weeks. The weekly schedule will be paid Sunday through Saturday after completion of previous week of disability.

Period of Total Disability:

Period of Total Disability is the period of time that an employee is totally disabled to perform his normal duties. New periods due to the same or related caused must be separated by the employee having returned to work for at least two weeks in a row. New periods due to different causes must be separated by return to active work for at least one day.

Covered Weekly Earnings:

The Short Term Disability benefit paid to an eligible employee is based only on the employee's rate of weekly earnings of base pay. The Short Term Disability payment will not include any overtime, commissions, bonuses, longevity or stability, or any other added pay the employee receives from the City of Tyler in the calculated amount of the weekly benefit for Short Term Disability.

How to Submit a Claim:

1. Obtain the Short Term Disability Claim forms from your department. (These are currently located on the City of Tyler Intranet under Human Resources Information. There will be three forms. An employee form, an attending physician form and a W-4.)
2. Complete the Employee portion of the form. ALL QUESTIONS MUST BE ANSWERED.
3. Have your Doctor complete the Attending Physician Form.
4. Send the two forms along with a W-4 to the Human Resources Department for processing. A Human Resources Representative will complete the employer's statement.

Claims should be filed with the Claims Administrator within 60 days of the date charges for the services were incurred. Benefits are based on the Plan's provisions at the time Total Disability started.

Checks are printed every Friday after confirmation with the Department that the employee has not returned to work.

If an employee does not wish to apply for Short Term Disability, even though they are eligible, the Department they work in must have the employee sign a Waiver of Disability Benefit Form.

Form W-4 (2016)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2016 expires February 15, 2017. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2016. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
