Overview of the Methodology

ETC Institute conducted a Citizen Survey in July of 2012. The purpose of the survey was to help determine the way the City of Tyler prepares for the future in the development of programs, services and facilities.

ETC Institute worked extensively with City of Tyler officials in the development of the survey questionnaire. This work allowed the survey to be tailored to issues of strategic importance to effectively plan the future system.

The survey was administered by mail, phone and on-line. The goal was to obtain a total of at least 400 completed surveys. This goal was exceeded, with 427 surveys having been completed. The level of confidence is 95% with a margin of error of +/-4.7%

The following pages summarize major survey findings.

Major Survey Findings

- Level of Importance of Various Issues. Eighty-six percent (86%) of households indicated public safety is a very important issue. Other issues with the same level of importance include: employment opportunities (83%), maintaining a low tax rate (82%), traffic congestion (75%), and water/sewer availability (72%).
- FOUR Issues That Are Most Important to Households. Based on the sum of their top four choices, the issues that most important to households include: employment opportunities (52%), maintaining a low tax rate (48%), public safety (43%), traffic congestion (39%), and affordable housing (25%).
- Overall Satisfaction With Major City Services. Ninety percent (90%) of households indicated they are either very satisfied (41%) or satisfied (49%) with garbage collection services in Tyler. Other city services with similar satisfaction levels include: quality of public safety services (34% “very satisfied”, 49% “satisfied”), water quality (34% “very satisfied”, 49% “satisfied”), management of drainage/storm water runoff (14% “very satisfied”, 51% “satisfied”), and quality of customer service received (19% “very satisfied”, 44% “satisfied”).
- TWO Items That Households Think Should Receive the Most Emphasis From City Leaders Over the Next Three Years. Based on the sum of their top two choices, the items that households indicated should receive the most emphasis from city leaders over the next three years include: effectiveness of traffic management (49%), maintenance of city streets/facilities (33%), quality of public safety services (20%), and quality of bus service availability (14%).
- Overall Satisfaction With the Quality of New Neighborhood Sub-Divisions in the City of Tyler. More than half (59%) of households were either very satisfied (18%) or somewhat satisfied (41%) with the quality of new neighborhood sub-divisions in the City of Tyler. Another 20% were neutral, while 4% were dissatisfied and 1% were very dissatisfied. The remaining 16% of respondents indicated they had no opinion.
- Overall Satisfaction With the Quality of New Commercial Development in the City of Tyler. Almost two-thirds (64%) of households were either very satisfied (17%) or satisfied (47%) with the quality of new commercial development in the City of Tyler. Of the remaining percentages, 19% were neutral, 9% were dissatisfied, 1% were very dissatisfied and the final 7% indicated they don’t know.
